

BADGES, CRESTS, COAT OF ARMS

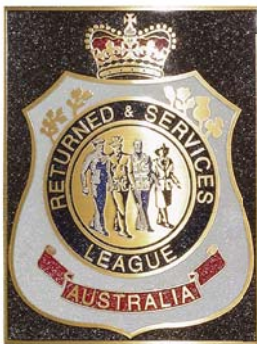

This ancient form of family heraldry is still popular today. They are also widely used as service emblems, logos for schools and government departments.

Phoenix are able to provide this product in two basic forms.

Flat - recessed cast bronze:

Produced from artwork, this product is an attractive and affordable representation of the logo or heraldic image. This product can be sized infinitely and multiple copies easily produced. A variety of finishes are available.

Sculptured:

Three dimensional coats of arms can be created by our sculptors. Cast in bronze, these make an imposing statement of elegance and durability.
